

LIFELONG LEARNING BOOK REPORT

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Books included in a reading program established by the minister's district qualify for Lifelong Learning hours.

2. For each book in the directed reading program, a 250-500 word report is to be submitted. The cover page must include the following information:

Book Title
Author
Date Completed
Minister's Name
Mailing Address
District

3. The paper should include the following elements:

- a. An introductory statement or paragraph on the theme of the book.
- b. List the three most important points made by the author and their application to your ministry.
- c. Comment on the degree to which the author's views complement Wesleyan/Holiness theology.
- d. Identify the 4C category (Content, Competency, Character, or Context) of the book.
- e. Concluding remarks.

4. Once the paper has been completed, it should be submitted to the Lifelong Learning Coordinator in order to receive Lifelong Learning hours for the reading that has been completed. The Lifelong Learning Coordinator should review the report and may discuss the content with the report writer.

5. The formula for obtaining lifelong learning hours is based on the following: 30 hours of reading and a book report = 10 hours of lifelong learning.

PLEASE RETURN THE BOOK REPORT TO YOUR DISTRICT LIFELONG LEARNING COORDINATOR.
